

MIRRORED LIVES

WWII to Economic Miracle;
Incarceration to Resettlement

Discussion of Japanese Civilian Life in the U.S. and Japan
During and Immediately
after World War II

Tuesday, January 14, 2025
Japanese American Service Committee
5700 N. Lincoln Avenue
Chicago, IL 60659

MIRROR

Yamamoto and Tanimura family members, Chicago, 1946.

Oneda family members, Nagano prefecture, 1948.

Special Thanks to Small Group Facilitators:

Sayaka Machizawa, Psy.D., designer and lead

Nobuko Chikamatsu, Ph.D.

Marion Friebus-Flaman, Ph.D.

Jean Fujii, MSW

Asako Hoichi, NCC, LCPC

Kenneth Kikuchi, Psy.D.

Bob Kumaki

Anna Ninoyu, AIA

Jacob Rohde

ED LIVES

6:00 p.m. Doors Open

6:30 p.m. Welcome Remarks

CEO Courtney Sakai, JASC

Regional Chair Anna Ninoyu, Midwest USJC

Deputy Consul General Naoya Kishi,

Consulate-General of Japan, Chicago

6:40 p.m. Program Introduction

Michael Tanimura, JASC, Midwest USJC

6:45 p.m. Japanese American History

Erik Matsunaga, community historian

6:55 p.m. Japanese Nationals' Experiences

Consul Sanae Kanno, Consulate-General of Japan, Chicago

Kayoko Kawaguchi, JASC

Sawako Kojima and Sara Ceasrine,

Consulate-General of Japan, Chicago

7:40 p.m. Ground Rules

Sayaka Machizawa, Psy.D.

7:45 p.m. Dinner and Small Group Discussions

Bento from Ichi by Torino

8:25 p.m. Reflections and Comments

Closing Remarks and Acknowledgments

Conceived and Sponsored by:

Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago

Special Thanks to JASC Staff & Volunteers:

Ellie Campbell Ruby Grillier

Tina Rohde Donna Sagami

Tricia Soo Jennifer Trautvetter