

Sponsorship/Ticket Form

For almost eight decades, the Japanese American Service Committee has been dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for Japanese Americans and others in the Chicago area through social, cultural, and educational programs. On Thursday, April 30, 2026 we will host our annual spring fundraiser Cranes & Cocktails at Artifact Events, 4325 N. Ravenswood Avenue, Chicago, IL. This event brings together community members, business leaders, and supporters to celebrate our rich heritage and support our ongoing programs. Last year, we welcomed over 250 guests, and this year, we anticipate an even larger turnout.

We invite you to become a sponsor for this special evening. Your support will not only showcase your commitment to our community but also provide your organization with significant exposure to a diverse and engaged audience. Below are the sponsorship levels and benefits:
